

General obj
4.0
4.1

Comprehend the similarities & differences between Public & business Administration
Define Public and business Administration

Public Administration can be defined as the process of mobilizing & utilizing human and material resources to achieve public goals & objectives human resources
ment, training & development of personnel

Public Administration can also be defined as the management of policies, public programs and policies, translating policies into everyday reality for citizens

The terms Public Administration has a very humble meaning "to look after" or "to care for the public. So, whatever services we are getting from the government at subsidized rate is part of a public organization

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
Business is the exchange of goods and services while Bus Adm is for general commercial purpose i.e. Business administration are responsible for the overall management of an organization.

There are some scholarly definition of Business administration from renowned institutions and authors

- ① Harvard Business Review: B.A refers to the activities involved in managing a business or organizations including planning, organizing, leading and controlling.

- ② AMERICAN MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION: B.A is the process of managing and co-ordinating the activities of a business or organisation to achieve its goals and objectives.

- ③ PETER DRUCKER: Business Administration is the discipline that deals with the planning, organizing, leading and controlling of resources to achieve organizational goals.

Some of the key aspects of business administration includes,

- ① Planning & setting goals, objectives & strategies
- ② Organizing: Allocating resources, structuring teams & assigning tasks
- ③ Leading / motivating, guiding & directing personnel
- ④ Controlling & monitoring performance evaluating progress & making adjustments
- ⑤ Co-ordinating / managing resources and finances to achieve goals

4.2

THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN PUBLIC AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATIONS
While both P.A & B.A deals with management and decision-making, there are significant differences between the two ②

- Public sector organizations are established to provide service to the people at no cost directly or indirectly. Service may be provided at subsidized cost. Eg. Education, utilities, housing, food and medicine.

while Business Administration major focus are profits maximization

②

Focus: Public administration focuses on managing Public Programs and Policies to serve the Public interests

while B.A - managing Private organizations to generate profits and business growth

③

COAL: P.A main concerned is to achieve Social welfare, equity and Justice while

B.A - maximize Shareholder Value, Profitability and market share

④

Environment: P.A Operates in a government setting / ^{Govt agencies, non-profit organization} _{Public Administration} while B.A on the other hand

B.A Private Companies, Corporations and Entrepreneurial Ventures.

⑤

Decision-Making: P.A are influenced by Political considerations, law and regulations.

while B.A on the other hand,

their decision are driven by market forces, competition and financial considerations

⑥

Accountability: P.A is accountable to the Public, elected officials and the law

while B.A are accountable to their Shareholders, customers and employees

⑦

Funding: The Primary sources of the government fund are through grants, taxes while B.A primarily sources of income are through investments, loans and profits.

Q.3

The Similarities Between PA & BA

① RECRUITMENT SIMILARITIES.

(i) Competitive Process: Both PA & BA recruit through competitive processes, including exams, interviews and assessment

② (iv) MERIT-BASED SELECTION: Candidates are selected based on merits, skills & qualifications

(ii) DIVERSE CANDIDATE POOL: A diverse candidate pool refers to a group of potential job candidates with a wide range of background, experience & skills. Both PA & BA aim to attract diverse candidates including those from under-represented group

②

SIMILARITIES IN TERMS OF SIZE

① Large & Complex Organizations: Both PA & BA involve managing large and complex or with multiple departments & terms

(ii) Hierarchical Structure: Both sectors

(iii)

have a hierarchical structure with clear lines of authority & decision-making processes

Specialized Department: Both PA & BA have specialized departments, such as human resources, finances & operation

③

TYPE OF SERVICE SIMILARITIES DIPLOMATS:

(i)

Protocol Services: Both PA & B.A provide

protocol services, including diplomatic protocol, ~~et~~ etiquette, logistics

(ii)

International relations: Diplomats in both sectors engage in international relation including negotiations, agreements and partnerships

Other Similarities btw PA & BA

①

Goal Orientation: Both PA & B.A

aim to achieve specific goals & objectives, whether it's providing public service or generating profits

②

Management functions: Both field involves management functions such as planning, organizing, leading, controlling, etc.

- ③ ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE: Both Public & Private organizations have a hierarchical structure with clear lines of authority & communications
- ④ Human Resources Management: Both fields involves managing human resources, including recruitment, training and development.
- ⑤ financial management: Both PA & BA involves managing finances, including budgeting, accounting & financial reporting
- ⑥ Decision-making: Both fields require decision-making, problem-solving & critical thinking
- ⑦ Accountability: Both PA & BA involves accountability, whether it's to citizens, stakeholders or shareholders

S.No	APPROPRIATE ENVIRONMENTAL FACTORS THAT INFLUENCES PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
5.1	DEFINE ECOLOGY OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
①	ecology in PA was introduced by Professor John M. Gaus in 1947, one of the early pioneers of Public administration. John M. Gaus views on ecology of P.A seen (7) environmental factors,
②	People: The human resources of organization which also focuses on numbers, age, and knowledge and their effect on their job
③	PLACE: Refers to climate change, soil & location
④	PHYSICAL TECHNOLOGY: The physical equipment with which the people run the organizations.
⑤	SOCIAL TECHNOLOGY: Communication and relationship between one level and another
⑥	Wishes & IDEAS: Aspirations, desires and objectives
⑦	CHARACTERISTICS: Security, insurance etc
⑧	PERSONALITY: How leadership affect organizations effectiveness

5.1

DEFINITION OF ECOLOGY OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Public administration deals with human beings, therefore it is influenced to function

* Ecology is from the word eco-system.

i.e. the study of environment

* Biological science define ecology as the relationship of interactions between living organisms and their natural habitat or environment

* The general definition of ecology is the relationship that exist between plants and living organisms to each other and to their environment.

in

* The ecology of Public Administration

refers to the complex network to relation, interaction & interdependences between various components and stakeholders within the P.A System

* Ecology studies the relationship b/w Administration and its environment. Similarly the ecology of P.A examines the relationship b/w

① GOVT AGENCIES: ministries, departments and other public organizations that work together to deliver public services

② STAKEHOLDERS: Citizens, businesses, non-governmental (NGOs) and other groups that interact with and influence P.A

③ POLICY PROCESSES: The development, implementation, and evaluation of policies that shape public administration.

④ ENVIRONMENTAL FACTORS: economic, social, cultural and technological factors that impact public administration

⑤ INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK: The laws, regulations and norms that govern public administration

5.2 Explain how Population growth influences administration, & stakeholders can better navigate the complexities of the system & work towards creating a more effective, responsive and sustainable public administration

5.3 Explain how Population growth influences the practice of public administration with particular references to the increase in social overhead.

Population growth has a profound impact on the practices of public administration, particularly in the provision of social overhead, which refers to essential infrastructure & services necessary for the well-being of the citizens. Like

- Education
 - Healthcare
 - Infrastructure
 - Housing
- As the Population grows, demand for overhead increases, posing significant challenges for P.A

CHALLENGES POSED BY POPULATION GROWTH

① INCREASED DEMAND FOR SERVICES: A growing Population requires more healthcare, education, sanitation & other essential services putting pressure on public administrators to deliver

② STRAIN ON INFRASTRUCTURE: Rapid population growth can lead to inadequate infrastructure including housing, transportation, & utilities which can hinder economic growth and development and quality of life

③ ESCALATING COSTS: Providing social overhead to a growing Population can lead to increased costs, which can be difficult for governments to finance, especially in developing countries

④ URBANIZATION & MIGRATION: Population growth can lead to urbanization & migration which can create social, economic and environmental challenges for public administrators

IMPACT ON P.A

- ① Resources Allocation: Public administrators must allocate resources effectively to meet the increasing demand for social overhead, e.g.
- ② Service delivery: Public administrators must design & deliver services that are responsive to the need of a growing population, which requires innovation & effective solutions.
- ③ Policy-making: Public administrators must develop policies that address the challenges caused by population growth, such as urban planning, housing and transportation policies, birth control etc.
- ④ Partnership & collaborations: Public administrators need to partnership with private sectors or organizations to address the challenges caused by population growth.

513

Explain how culture & accepted norms in society can influence

- * Culture is a way of life
- * Culture refers to the shared values, beliefs, customs, practices, traditions.
- * Culture & accepted norms in a society significantly influence public administration practices including corruption
- ① Values & beliefs: Cultural values and beliefs shape the behaviours and decision-making of P.A. for example, in some culture, hierarchy and authority are deeply respected which can influence how administrators interact with citizens.
- ② Social norms: Social norms, such as those related to gift-giving or favoritism can influence how public administrators interact with citizens & other stakeholders.
- ③ Communication styles: Cultural difference in communication styles can affect how public administrators & other stakeholders do and study the impact of the state of economy on PA.
- * Norms & impact of the political system on administrative behaviour

6.0

Compend Personnel Management in Public Service

* Personnel management also known as human resources management refers to the planning, organising, directing & controlling of human resources within an organization. It involves the effective management of people to achieve organizational goals and objectives

* Personnel refers to a person or employee that work in an organization

* Personnel administration refers to the process of managing an organization's workforce, including planning, organising, directing and controlling various aspects of employee relations

SCOPE OF PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION

① Recruitment & selection: Attracting, selecting & hiring qualified candidates based on merit.

② Training & Development: Providing training, development & education to enhance employee skills, knowledge & performance.

③

~~Personnel~~ Performance Management: Evaluating employee performance, providing feedback and setting goals

④

Compensation & Benefits: Designing and administering compensation & benefits programs

⑤

Employee Relations: Managing employee communication, conflict resolution & disciplinary actions

⑥

Labour relations: Managing relationships with unions, collective bargaining & labour law

⑦

Risk Management: Mitigating risks related to employment, labour laws & workplace

⑧

5.2

Explain the Recruitment, selection, Placement and Procedure

* Recruitment, selection & Placement are the processes involved in identifying, evaluating and hiring the best candidates for a job opening. Here's an overview of the procedures

① Recruitment Procedures

- ① Job Analysts: Identify the job requirements, responsibilities & skills needed
- ② Job Description: Create a detailed job description outlining the job duties, responsibilities & requirements
- ③ Job Specification: Define the qualifications, skills and experience required for the job
- ④ Recruitment Sources: Advertise the job through various sources, such as company website, social media, job boards, employee referrals, recruitment agencies

- ⑤ Recruitment Strategies: Use various strategies such as campus recruitment, job fairs, employee referrals, internship programs

Selection Procedures

- ① Application Screening: Review applications to ensure candidates meet the minimum qualifications.
- ② Resume Screening: Evaluate resume to identify relevant skills, experience & education
- ③ Phone & Video Interview: Conduct initial interviews to assess communication skills, personality and motivation.
- ④ In-Person Interviews: Conduct face-to-face interviews to assess technical skills, experience & fit with the company culture
- ⑤ Assessment Tests: Administer tests to evaluate skills, knowledge or personality traits.
- ⑥ Reference Checks: Verify candidates' information by conducting references

PLACEMENT PROCEDURES

- ① Job Offer: Extend a job offer to the selected candidates, including salary benefits & other terms.
- ② Onboarding: Provide an orientation program to familiarize the new employee with the company, job & colleagues.
- ③ Training & development: Provide training & development opportunities to ensure the new employee has the necessary skill & knowledge.
- ④ Performance evaluation: Establish a performance evaluation process to assess new employees' performance & provide feedback.
- ⑤ Background checks: Conduct background checks to verify candidates' information and ensure a safe work environment.
- ⑥ Medical Exams: Conduct medical exams to ensure candidates are physically capable of performing the job duties.

6.3 STATE THE IMPORTANCE OF HUMAN RESOURCES FOR AN ORGANIZATION

- ① Talent Acquisition & Management: Human resources attracts, select & retain top talent, ensuring the organization has the skills & expertise needed to achieve its goals.
- ② Strategic Planning: Human resource contributes to strategic planning by providing insights on workforce planning, talent development & organizational design.
- ③ Improve employee satisfaction & retention.
- ④ Enhance productivity and performance.
- ⑤ Reduce costs and improve efficiency.
- ⑥ Foster a positive & inclusive work environment.
- ⑦ Achieve strategic goals & objectives.
- ⑧ Human resources focuses on attracting, developing & retaining talent, fostering a positive work environment & ensuring compliance with relevant laws, productivity & profitability.

6.4. EXAMINE THE ROLE OF MOTIVATION IN S. STAFF'S MOTIVATION IS CRUCIAL

Motivation is crucial for staff, driving performance, productivity contributing to organizational success

Motivation play an important role in staff performance as it influences an individual's desire to achieve goals, overcome obstacles & maintain a high level of productivity

Types of Motivation

- ① Intrinsic motivation - Derived from personal satisfaction, enjoyment & interest in the work
- ② Extrinsic motivation - Derived by external factors, such as rewards, recognition & social pressure

HIERARCHY OF MOTIVATION

- ① Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs
- ② Herberg's two-factors theory
- ③ David McClelland's acquired needs.

- ① Abraham Maslow's hierarchy of needs: According to Maslow, human beings have different levels of needs which must be fulfilled in a particular order for a person to reach their full potential. Human needs are categorized into five
- ② Physiological needs
- ③ Safety needs
- ④ Esteem needs
- ⑤ Self-actualization

① Physiological needs: are the basic necessities required for human survival & well-being such as food, water, shelter, sleep, sex etc

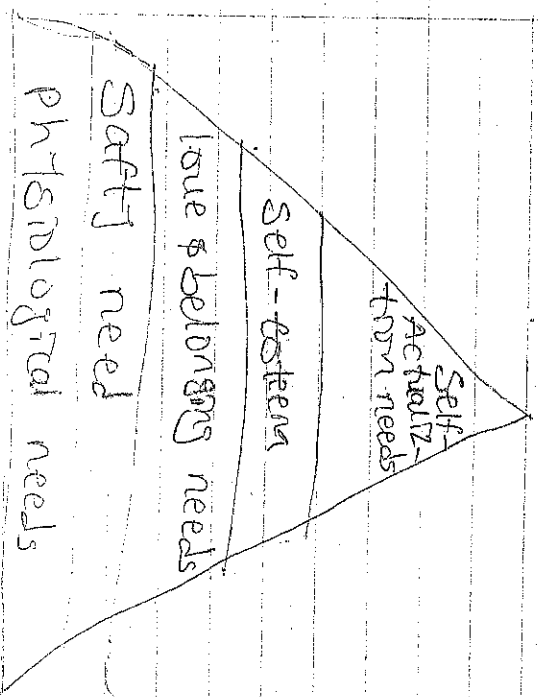

- ② Safety need: need related to security and stability such as
 - emotional security
 - employment, financial security
 - health, protection from harm
 - job security

- ③ Love & Belonging needs: needs related to social connections & relationship - friendship, intimacy, family, community, love & affection

H

- esteem needs: needs related to self-esteem & recognition such as
- Self-respect, recognition, achievement
 - Prestige

- ③ Self-actualization: needs related to personal growth & fulfillment such as - Realizing one's potential
- Pursuing passions
 - Creativity, self-awareness

② HERBERT FREDERICK TWO-FACTOR THEORY

- Frederick Herzberg's two-factor theory also known as the motivation-hygiene theory. Fred and dual factors theory was developed by psychologist Frederick, according to Herzberg, motivation is influenced by hygiene factors (Salary, Job Security) and motivators factors (Recognition, achievement).
- ① HYGIENE FACTORS (Dissatisfiers)
- ① Company Policies
 - ② SUPERVISION
 - ③ Working conditions
 - ④ in Salary
 - ⑤ Job Security
 - ⑥ Benefits

② MOTIVATIONAL FACTORS (satisfiers)

- ① Achievement
- ② Recognition
- ③ work self
- ④ Responsibility
- ⑤ Advancement
- ⑥ Growth

DAVID McCLELLAND'S ACQUIRED NEEDS
This theory proposes that individuals are driven by three primary needs.

- (1) Achievement (the desire to excel & succeed)
- (2) Power (the desire to influence)
- (3) Affiliation (the desire for strong relationships)

EXPLANATIONS

(1) NEED FOR ACHIEVEMENT (NACH)

- i characterized by a desire to individual excel, succeed & attain goals
- ii individuals with a high need for affiliation set realistic & attainable goals
- iii set feedback and learning opportunities

(2) NEED FOR AFFILIATION (NAAF)

- i characterized by a desire for social interacting, friendship & belonging
- ii Sociable: They enjoy interacting with others from friendship & being part of a group
- iii Seek Social Approval: They seek validation & approval from others

iv ~~AVOID~~ CONFLICT: They tend to avoid conflict and disagreement, preferring harmony at all costs & avoiding confrontation.

(3) NEEDS FOR POWER (NUPW)

- i characterized by a desire to influence, control & lead others
- ii individuals with a high need for power seek leadership roles and positions of authority
- iii influential: They enjoy influencing others and shaping opinions and achieving social impact

6.5 THE PROMOTION PROCEDURE IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE

The promotion procedures in the public services typically involves a systematic and transparent process to ensure fairness & equity; there are the general outlining

- (1) VANCANCY IDENTIFICATION: A vacancy arise due to retirement, resignation or creation of a new position.

- (2) Job Analysis: The job analyzed to determine the required skills, qualification & experience
- (3) Advertisement: The vacancy is advertised internally or externally depending on the organization Policies.

4) eligibility criteria: Candidates must meet the eligibility criteria which includes;

- 1) Being a current employee, meeting the required qualifications & experience.
- 2) Having a satisfactory performance record.

5) APPLICATION & NOMINATIONS: Interested candidates submit their application usually accompanied by a nomination from their manager shortlisting the panel reviews applications & shortlist candidates based on their qualifications, experience & performance.

7) Interviews: Shortlisted candidates undergo an interview, which may include

- Panel interview
- Presentations
- Psychometric testing

8) Assessment: Interview panel assesses candidate based on technical competence, leadership and management skills.

- Communication & interpersonal skills
- Strategic thinking & problem solving

9) Recommendation: The interview panel recommends the top candidates to the appointing authority.

10) Appointment: The appointing authority makes the final decision and appoints the successful candidates.

11) Notification: The successful candidates are notified and the appointment is communicated to all stakeholders.

6.6 PROCEDURE FOR DISCIPLINE IN AN ORGANIZATION

The procedure for discipline in an organization typically involves a series of steps designed to effectively address employee misconduct or poor performance.

STEP ONE 1) Investigation:

Initial report: A supervisor or manager receive a report of misconduct or poor performance.

Preliminary investigation: The supervisor or manager conducts a preliminary investigation to gather action or information.

Decision to proceed: If the investigation reveals

(2) Step Two - Verbal Warning

- i meeting with employee: The S/M meets with the employee to discuss the issue
- ii Explanation of misconduct: The S or M must explain the misconduct or poor performance
- iii Expected Improvement: The S or M outlines the expected improvement & timelines

(3) Step 3 - Written Warning

- i Documentation: If the employee fails to improve a written warning is issued
- misconduct or poor performance
- expected improvement
- consequences of failure to improve
- ii Employee Acknowledges: The employee acknowledges receipt of the written warning

(4) Step 4: Suspension or Demotion

- i Severe Misconduct: In cases of severe misconduct, the employee may be suspended or demoted

(5) Step 5: Termination

- i Final Warning: If the employee fails to improve after a written warning, a final warning is issued, outlining the consequences of termination

70

ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL IN PUBLIC SERVICE ORGANIZATION

* Administrative Control refers to the process & systems put in place to ensure that an organization's goals & objectives are achieved. It involves the use of various techniques, tools & strategies to monitor, regulate & direct the activities of an organization.

* Administrative Control in Public Administration refers to the mechanism & processes used to ensure that government agencies & officials operate in a responsible, efficient and effective manner.

COMPONENTS OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL

There are various components of administrative control in public administration

- (1) Legislative Control over Administration
- (2) Judicial " "
- (3) Executive " "
- (4) Budgetary " "

- (5) Financial Control over Administration
- (6) Personnel " "
- (7) Planning & Policy Control
- (8) Monitoring & Evaluation
- (9) Internal Control
- (10) Citizen Participation

LEGISLATION CONTROL

- Legislative control refers to the mechanism & processes used by the legislative branch of govt to oversee and regulate the activities of the executive branch & govt agencies. The legislative branch is the lawmaking body of a govt responsible for creating, amending & repealing laws. Examples of legislative branches of govt includes;

- (1) National Legislative Branch; The national legislative branch is the highest legislative body in Nigeria and is divided into
 - (a) Senate; The senate has 109 members, each representing one of the 36 states & the federal capital territory

- House of Representatives has 360 members, each representing a constituency
- ① The state legislative branches
- ② local govt legislative branches

PURPOSE OF LEGISLATIVE CONTROL

- ① ensure accountability: legislative control ensures that executive branch of govt agencies are accountable for their actions & decisions.
- ② Prevent ~~abuse~~ abuse of power: L.C. prevent the executive branch from abusing its power and ensures that it acts within its constitutional & statutory authority
- ③ ~~Represent~~ Represent citizen interest: L.C. allow citizens to hold their elected representatives accountable for ensuring that govt actions align with their interest

METHOD OF LEGISLATIVE CONTROL

- ① Law & Resolutions: The L.C. branch passes law & resolutions to establish Powers, Programs & Procedure for govt agencies

② Budgetary control: The L.C. exercise control over govt spending through the budgetary process over significant hearings: The L.C. conducts oversight hearing to monitor govt agencies and programs

③ Investigations: L.C. conducts investigations into govt actions & decisions to ensure accountability Confirmation of appointments: The L.C. confirms or rejects appointments made by the executive branch to ensure accountability Impeachment: The L.C. has the power to impeach and remove executive branch officials including the President or prime minister for serious misconduct or abuse of power

JUDICIAL CONTROL

The judicial control is a branches of govt responsible for interpreting laws and ensuring that they are applied fairly & justly or an judicial control is a mechanism that ensure govt actions & decisions are in accordance with the law and do not infringe on individual rights.

PURPOSE OF JUDICIAL CONTROL

- (1) Protect Individual Right: Judicial Control ensure that govt actions do not violate individual rights and freedoms
- (2) Ensure Rule of Law: Judicial Control ensures that govt action are in accordance with the law
- (3) Provide checks & balances: J.C. provide a checks & balance on the executive & legislative branches of govt, ensuring that they do not overstep their authority
- (4) Prevent abuse of Power: J.C. prevent govt officials from abusing their Power

METHOD OF JUDICIAL CONTROL

- (1) Judicial Review: Court review government decisions & actions to determine if they are lawful & constitutional
- (2) Writs & Orders: Courts issue writs and Orders to compel govt officials to act in accordance with the law
- (3) Declaratory Judgments: Court issues declaratory judgments to clarify the meaning & application of laws

(4) Injunctions: Court issue injunctions to prevent govt officials from taking actions that are unlawful or constitutional

- (5) Appeals: Individuals or organizations can appeal govt decision & actions to higher courts.

EXECUTIVE CONTROL

The executive control is the branch of govt responsible for enforcing laws and managing the administration of govt. The executive is headed by the President, or Prime Minister, who is responsible for appointing officials to various positions & overseeing the implementation of policies.

PURPOSE OF EXECUTIVE CONTROL

- (1) Ensure Policy Implementation: Executive control that laws and policies passed by the legislature
- (2) Promotes Economic Development: By implementing policies that will benefit the citizens

- ③ maintain accountability: E.C holds govt officials & agencies accountable for their actions & decisions
- ④ Co-Ordinate govt activities: E.C coordinate the activities of different agencies & officials or departments to ensure a united approach
- ⑤ Provide leadership: E.C provides leadership & directions to govt agencies & officials

METHODS OF EXECUTIVE CONTROL

- ① Appointment & Removals: The executive branch appoints & removes govt officials including agency heads & department secretaries.

- ② Executive Orders: The E.C issues executive orders to direct govt agencies & officials to take specific actions

- ③ Policy directives: The E.C oversees, monitors direct & guide govt agencies and officials in implementing policies

- ④ Budgetary control: The E.C exercises control over govt spending through the

- ⑤ Oversight & monitoring: The executive branch oversees & monitors govt agencies & officials to ensure compliance with policies & laws

- ⑥ Performance evaluation: The E.C evaluates the performance of govt agencies & officials to ensure accountability & effectiveness

- ⑦ BUDGETARY CONTROL: The legislative branch exercises control over govt spending through budgetary processes & appropriations

- ⑧ FINANCIAL CONTROL: financial control mechanisms, such as hiring, promotion, auditing & accounting, ensure that govt funds are used efficiently & effectively

- ⑨ PERSONNEL CONTROL: Personnel control mechanisms such as hiring, promotion, & disciplinary processes ensure that govt employees are qualified & perform their duties effectively

⑦ PLANNING & POLICY CONTROL: Planning & Policy control mechanisms, such as strategic planning & Policy analysis ensure that govt agencies operate in accordance with established goals & objectives.

⑧ MONITORING & EVALUATION CONTROL: Monitoring & evaluation control mechanisms, such as performance, measurement and evaluation, ensure that govt agencies are operating efficiently & effectively.

⑨ INTERNAL CONTROL: Internal control mechanisms, such as internal auditing & management control, ensure that govt agencies operate in accordance with established policies & procedure.

⑩ CITIZEN PARTICIPATION: Citizen participation mechanisms, such as, public hearing & citizens advisory committees ensure that govt agencies are responsive to citizens needs.